PASTEL SOCIETY of Southeast Texas
promoting the beauty of soft pastel

Art of the Pastel

The Pastel Society of Southeast Texas is proud to honor artists throughout the world who have created this extraordinary body of pastel work.

Together, the paintings are filled with light and enhanced with the deepest darks. They explode with brilliant color, balanced with nuanced neutrals.

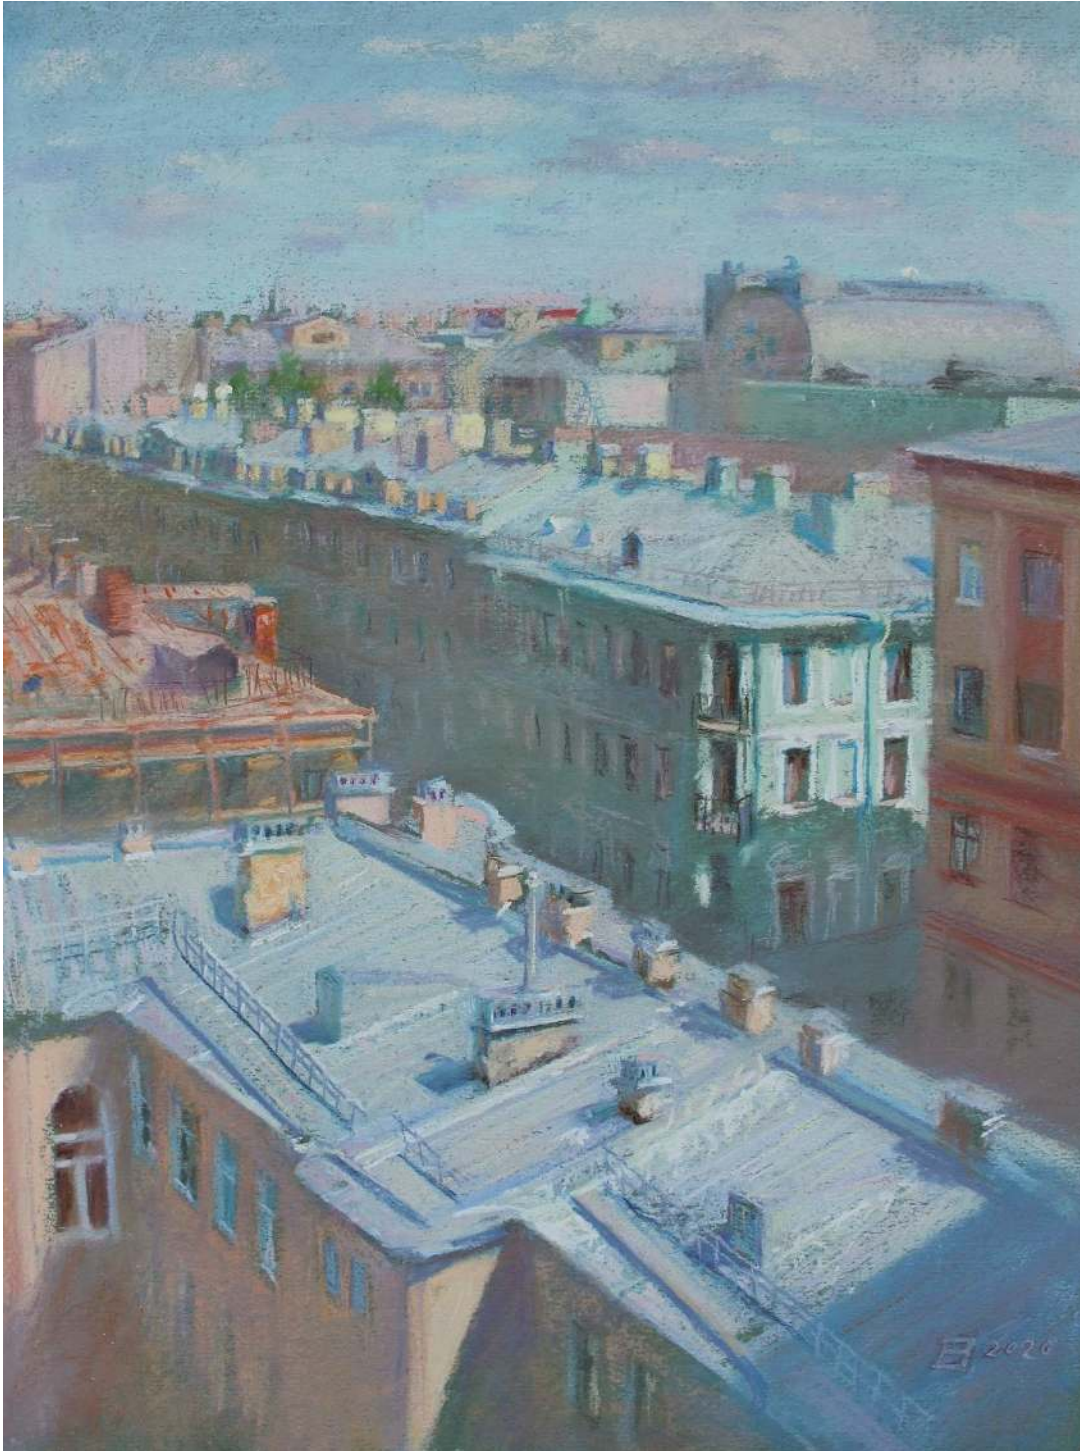

BEST OF SHOW

Carol Peebles
Louisiana

California Birdsong
19 x 14, $1250

Exquisite draftsmanship. The effect of light play is so very believable. The concept hits a bit close to home with our California fires, the bluebird a symbol of hope and happiness. The pastel is beautifully applied, textural and detailed at the same time.

— Kim Lordier

FIRST PLACE

Elena Prudnikova
St. Petersburg

The Sun Warms Our Homes
15 x 11, NFS

High key paintings sometimes get passed over when compared to a more dramatic painting. There is an almost icing like quality to the medium that made me take a closer look. This artist submitted a series of works from the same vantage point and created a beautiful series. That shadow in the lower right corner brings this whole thing to life! Place your hand over it and the image goes a little flat. The quality of light is terrific. The subtle color gradations and gentle temperature shifts really sing here. Maybe a tiny bit Diebenkorn like...

— Kim Lordier

SECOND PLACE

Michele Ashby
UK

Maybe tomorrow...
8 x 10, $1000

This LITTLE piece has a BIG impact. The control over values is just beautiful. Lovely draftsmanship, and the viewer gets to wonder what this young man is thinking.

— Kim Lordier

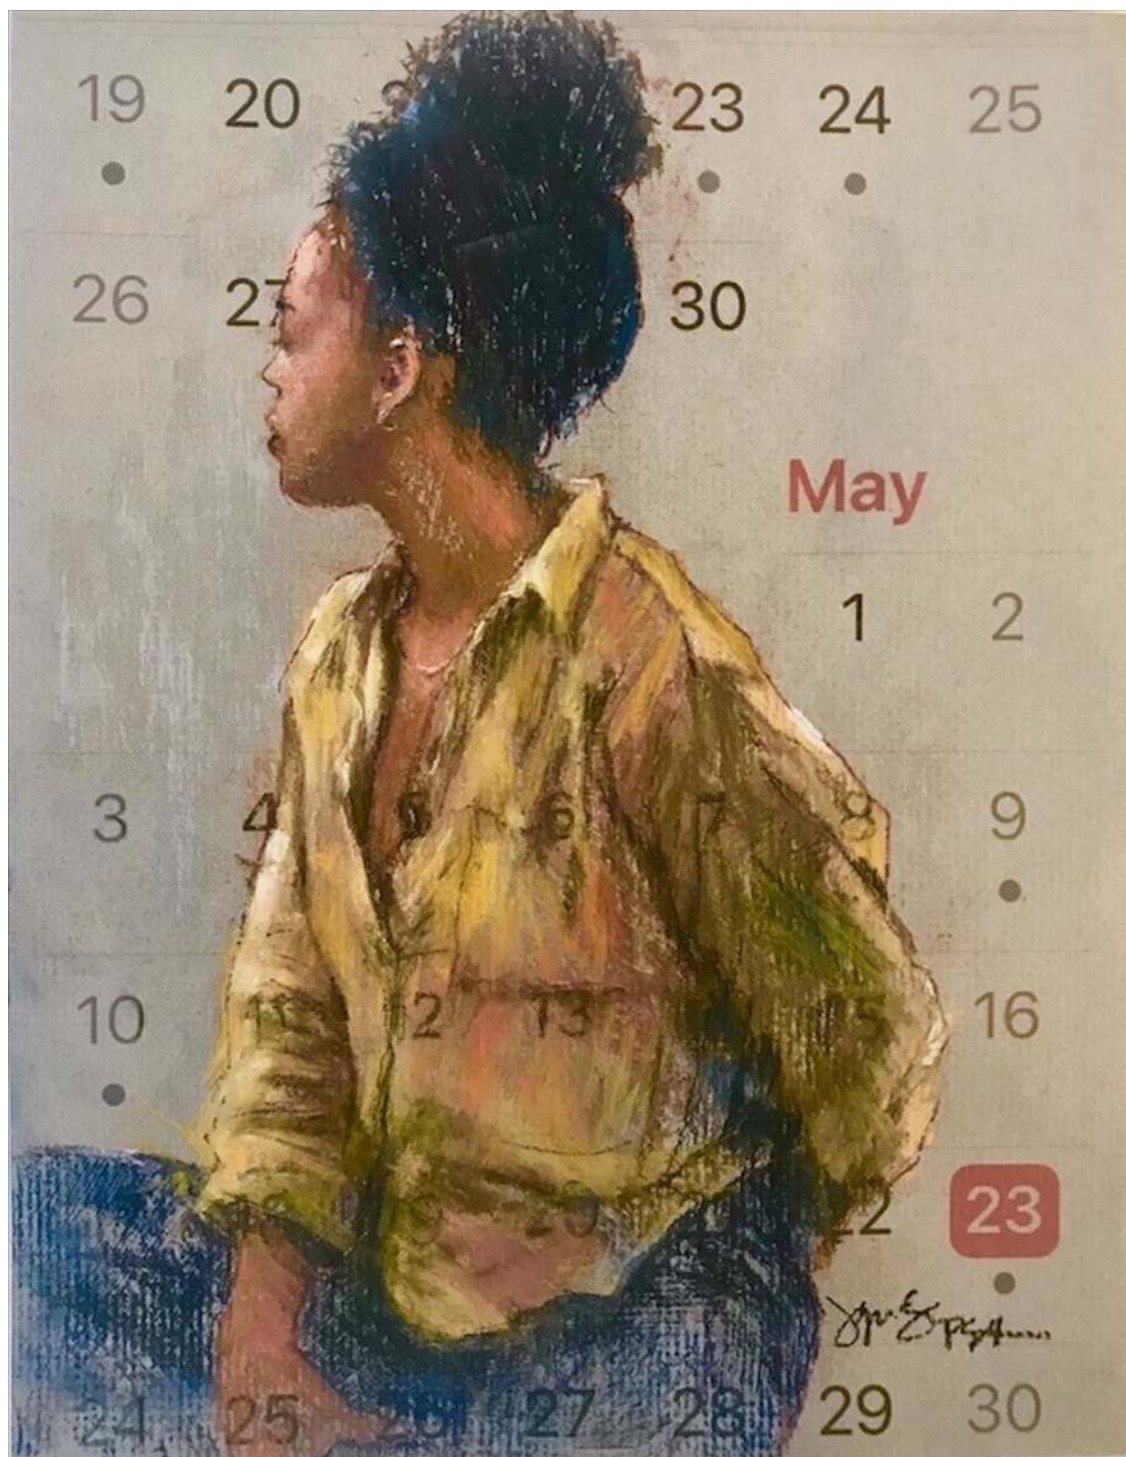

THIRD PLACE

Yael Maimon
Israel

4pm Meal
18 x 12, NFS

I LOVE this piece!
The gestural mark making and keen drawing make a dynamite combination!

— Kim Lordier

HONORABLE
MENTION

Jeri Greenberg
North Carolina

All the Days Are the Same

12 x 10, $650

Beautiful drawing and concept.
Speaks to our current global experience. Simple (not to imply easy) and strong, both qualities that are important to me.

— Kim Lordier

HONORABLE
MENTION

Christine Troyer
Washington

Whispers of the Mountains
8 x 8, NFS

Glorious, gestural, ethereal, beautiful.
Just an honest moment in time.

— Kim Lordier

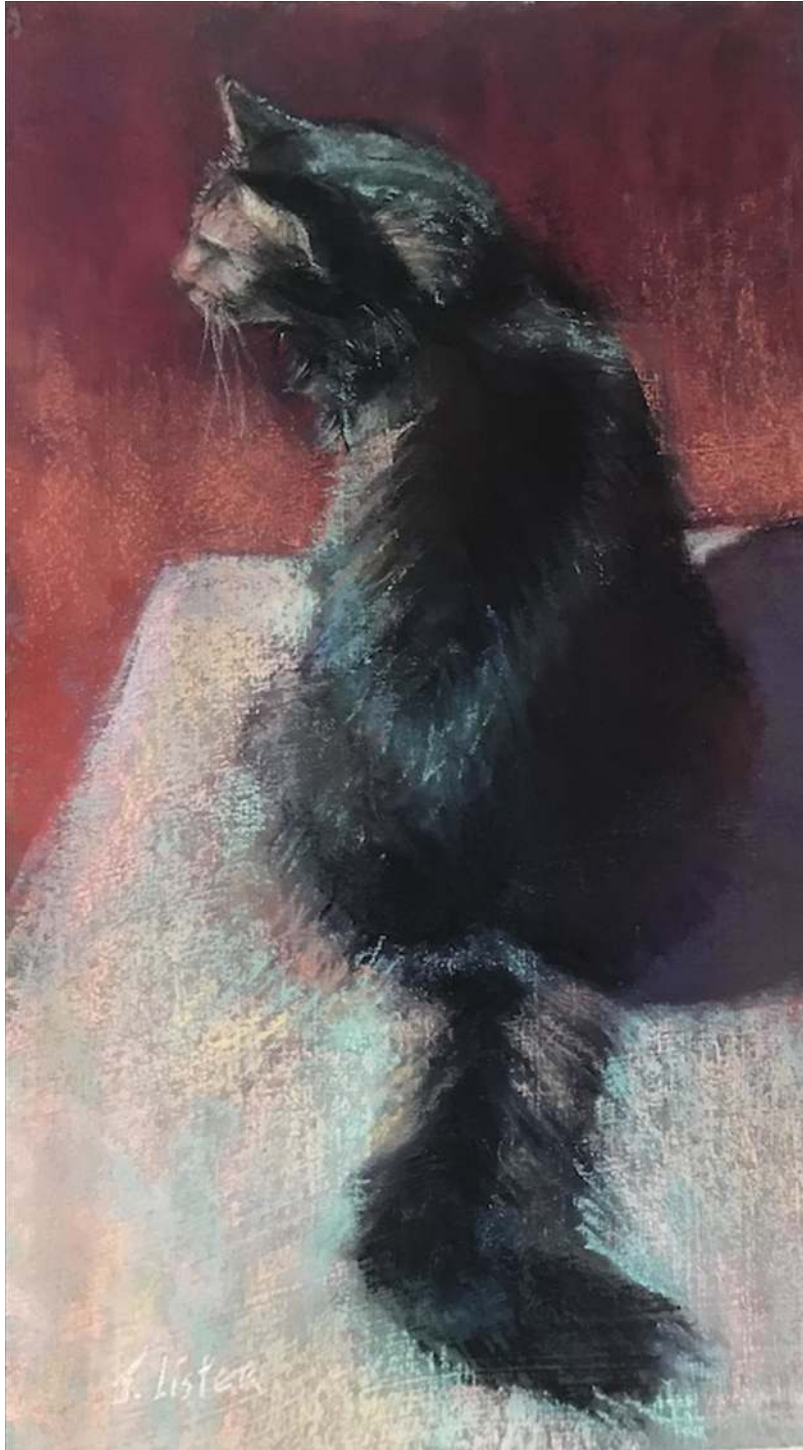

HONORABLE
MENTION

Carolina Dalmas
Texas

Avocado Green
12 x 12, $520

Love the textures!
Really enjoy how the artist allowed the heavy ground to create the texture, and utilized the pastel as a drawing and painting medium at the same time.

— Kim Lordier

HONORABLE
MENTION

Joyce Lister
Maryland

Wiley
21 x 12, NFS

Great design!
There is not one shape repeated here. Textural, not over rendered. A strong believable sense of light, yet graphic at the same time. Really cool piece!

— Kim Lordier

HONORABLE
MENTION

Andrew McDermott
British Columbia

Out Shopping
7 x 17, $1050

This artist had several pieces that intrigued me. The rhythms of shape and color create a strong design. There is movement and a clear vision in this abstracted urban scene. Terrific little piece!

— Kim Lordier

HONORABLE
MENTION

Anna Lapygina
St. Petersburg

Brothers
25 x 23. $3000

Beautifully designed portrait of two boys. A feel of Mary Cassatt and Norman Rockwell.
Gorgeous patterning in the background that stays back without distracting from the lovely light on the boys.

— Kim Lordier

HONORABLE
MENTION

Linda Dellandre
Texas

Bright Morning
6 x 9, $300

Dang! Great shadows. A terrific underlying abstract design to this beach scene.

— Kim Lordier

HONORABLE
MENTION

Mary McIntosh
Texas

Monterrey Pines
11 x 14, $900

The color in this piece is rich and harmonious. A beautiful quality to the light.

— Kim Lordier

HONORABLE MENTION

B. F. Reed
North Carolina

Strawberries and Stripes
27 x 19, $1200

This hard edged, graphic painting defies the pastel medium. Folks unfamiliar with pastels would probably think this was oil or watercolor. That is what is so cool about our medium! It is so versatile. I love the intense color, strong drawing and unique perspective on this painting. Very strong design.

— Kim Lordier

HONORABLE MENTION

Jan Weaver
Texas

Sunny Day
12 x 12, $550

Bold and beautiful.
I especially love
how this artist uses line and painterly strokes to elicit an abstracted floral. Beautifully implied detail and strong rich color.

— Kim Lordier

Kim Lordier, Juror and Judge of Awards, Art of the Pastel

As an artist, during this gift of time, I've realized that painting, for me, is sustenance. I've learned a tremendous amount about the character of the human spirit. I've learned that it is more important to listen than to speak without consideration. Through the ups and downs of this period in time, I know that I am grateful for the opportunity to stand before my easel, work hard, and learn more.

— Kim Lordier

Based in Houston, the Pastel Society of Southeast Texas has a vibrant and growing membership representing artists throughout the country, from professional artists who have exhibited nationally and won major awards to artists new to the medium.

Membership is open to all artists and art patrons, and we welcome you to join. Meetings into 2021 will be held via Zoom, and include artist demonstrations. If you would like to attend as a guest, contact us through our website.

We thank everyone who contributed to making Art of the Pastel possible, especially Juror/Judge Kim Lordier, PSST President Liz Czerewaty, Show Co-Chairs Betty James and Lynda Hughes, Flipbook Designer Carolyn Hancock, and onlinejuriedshows.com.
